TO LOVE WITHOUT YOU

(Letra e composição original de Nilo Jablonski)

TO LOVE WITHOUT YOU

The Heart's Dilemma

[Intro — Soft Piano]

[Verse 1]

I love someone who's not mine,

I dream of kisses left undone.

The more I try to leave this love,

The deeper my heart has fallen in.

[Pre-Chorus]

But there's another hidden sorrow,

Another pain that makes us cry:

To hold someone who loves forever,

Yet have no love to give in reply.

[Chorus]

Tell me, God, which hurts the most:
To love someone I'll never hold?
Or have someone who loves me deeply,
With no true love for them to know?
Is it longing for someone far away,
Or hurting someone who begs me to stay?
Which pain slowly tears the heart apart:
To love without having, or have without heart?

[Verse 2]

One mourns a love that never lived,
One grieves a love they cannot feel.
Two hearts imprisoned by their fate,
Two roads that love could never seal.

[Bridge — Gradually Building]

To hold a hand but hide your soul,
Is a sorrow words can never explain.
One heart breaks from being without love,
The other from giving love in vain.

[Final Chorus — Powerful and Emotional]

Tell me, God, which hurts the most:
To love someone I'll never hold?
Or have someone who loves me deeply,
With no true love for them to know?
If love won't bend to our desires,
If the heart can't choose whom to adore,
Why does life give us two roads to follow,
When neither leads us through the door?

[Outro — Soft Piano, Almost a Whisper]

To love someone I cannot have...

Or have someone I cannot love...

Perhaps the deepest pain of all...

Is not knowing where to give

The love inside us all.
